RE: Valerie Hue v. NCO Financial Systems, Inc.
Case No.: 05-225 KAJ

Dear Judge Jordan:

Our firm represents the plaintiff, Valerie Hue. Yesterday, defendant filed its reply brief in support of its motion for summary judgment. The scheduling order provides oral argument on the motion "if any" shall take place May 30, 2006. Although the reply brief makes some rather strong (and unsupportable) statements about the answering brief (e.g., "Plaintiff's Answer Brief Misrepresents Record Evidence In A Dishonest Attempt To Create Issues of Fact"), we are satisfied plaintiff's brief and appendix adequately address all of defendant's contentions. Therefore, we don't believe oral argument is necessary. Nonetheless, I'll leave the date open on my calendar in the event argument is scheduled.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully submitted,
